Scriptural Readings

First Reading: 1 Kings 3.5-12
 You have asked for an understanding mind.
 Responsorial Psalm:
Lord, how I love your law!
 Second Reading: Romans 8.28-30 God predestined us to be conformed to the image of his Son.

Gospel: Matthew 13.44-52
 Anyone who finds a treasure in a field, sells all and buys that field.

Meditation

What do you treasure the most and how do you keep it from being lost or stolen?

God offers his kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy (Romans 14:17) as incomparable treasure at a price we can afford! We can't pay the full price for the life which God gives us; but when we exchange our life for the life which God offers, we receive a treasure beyond compare.

Discovering God's kingdom is like stumbling across hidden treasure or finding the one pearl of great price. When we discover the kingdom of God we receive the greatest possible treasure - the Lord himself. Selling all that we have to obtain this incomparable treasure could mean many things - our friends, job, our "style of life", what we do with our free time. Treasure has a special connection to the heart, the place of desire and longing, the place of will and focus. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. In this parable what does the treasure of the kingdom refer to? It certainly refers to the kingdom of God in all its aspects. But in a special way, the Lord himself is the treasure we seek for. If the Almighty is your gold and your precious silver, then you will delight yourself in the Almighty (Job 22:22- 23). Is the Lord the treasure and delight of your heart?

THANK YOU

Thank you to all our dedicated volunteers who worked to ensure the success of our annual Parish Feast Day BBQ last Saturday, July 15th. All those in attendance had a good time. The event was a complete success. Thank you also to all choir members for their kind dedication and talent.

An Evening with Daniel O'Donnell

Scriptural Readings

First Reading: Daniel 7.9-10, 13-14
The Ancient One was robed in white, white like the snow.

Responsorial Psalm:
The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

Second Reading: 2 Peter 1.16-19
We ourselves heard God's voice from heaven.

Gospel: Matthew 17.1-9
Jesus was transfigured and his face shone like the sun.

Meditation

How much do we miss of God's glory and action because we are asleep spiritually?

There are many things which can keep our minds asleep to the things of God: Mental lethargy and the "unexamined life" can keep us from thinking things through and facing our doubts and questions.

The life of ease can also hinder us from considering the challenging or disturbing demands of Christ.
Prejudice can make us blind to something new the Lord may have for us. Even sorrow can be a block until we can see past it to the glory of God.

Are you spiritually awake? Peter, James, and John were privileged witnesses of the glory of Christ.
We, too, as disciples of Jesus Christ are called to be witnesses of his glory. We all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being changed into his likeness from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit (2 Corinthians 3:18). The Lord wants to reveal his glory to us, his beloved disciples. Do you seek his presence with faith and reverence?
